'Art - New Horizons' is a weekly course designed for students who have some experience and understanding of the basic processes, techniques and methods of drawing and painting, and would like to develop further their individual approaches to making art.

The course will be partly structured with sessions designed for the participation of the whole group, which will include life drawing and painting, portraiture, still- life and revision sessions (exercises in basic skills and techniques). There will also be plenty of opportunity to experiment, explore new ideas and broaden your horizons.

A full programme with details for each week + requirements will be given out at the start of the term.

Other costs: Contribution towards model expenses for life-class: £2.00 / for portraiture class: £1.50
Cartridge paper 20p per sheet. Tea / Coffee 20p
