

Spring / Summer Art Courses 2011

Tutored by Nick Andrew

Tues 3 – Thurs 5 May
'Spring Art School at Bull Mill'
Venue: The Old Pottery Studio at Bull Mill

An inspirational 3- day course designed to analyse and develop your individual approach to making art.

During the course, we will explore the possibilities offered by the landscape, woodland, river and water- meadows surrounding Bull Mill, Crockerton, through stimulating drawing and painting exercises. We will look at approaches to observation, gathering information and design. You will also be encouraged to work- out ideas towards finished pieces of work.

Students will be expected to provide materials and equipment including:

Sketchbooks, pencils, charcoal, pen, drawing paper, painting materials and equipment, drawing board, and equipment for outdoor work (ie: folding chair or stool and an easel if you have one). A full list will be sent with confirmation of booking

Times: 10.00am - 4.30pm

Fee £ 108

Weds 27 - Fri 29 July
'Mixed- Media Workshop'
Venue: Stourton Memorial Hall, Stourhead

A fascinating 3- day workshop focusing on the limitless possibilities of using mixed- media in your work. Exploring a wide range of drawing and painting media, from charcoal and ink to pastel and paint. And experimenting with different approaches and techniques, including resist, monoprint, collage and sgraffito.

Each day of the course we will explore a different aspect of the Stourhead landscape: water and the lakes; trees and foliage; structures and buildings.

Students will be expected to provide materials and equipment including:

Sketchbooks, pencils, charcoal, pen, charcoal pencil, oil pastels, drawing ink, acrylic paints, watercolours, A2 drawing paper, drawing board, and equipment for outdoor work (ie: folding chair or stool and an easel if you have one). A full list will be sent with confirmation of booking

Times: 10.00am - 4.30pm

Fee £ 108
